

Moray Nicholson Clinic – April 7-10, 2011

Moray is a BHSI and British Eventing Accredited Coach now working from his base in North Yorkshire, Moray has been an advanced instructor for many years. He has worked and trained with top trainers including Jane and Christopher Bartle, Richard Meade and Graham Fletcher

Moray had been an advanced Instructor there since 1990 and was teaching riders from around the world and of all skill levels. He now runs his own business regularly teaching clinics in the United Kingdom and America.

Competition Experience: As a young rider Moray represented Great Britain in International competition. He has extensive eventing experience including many advanced three-day competitions and has been a member of British Eventing for over 25 years. He now has full Accreditation as a trainer from British Eventing and has fully supported their lower level training schemes that were set up to help educate beginners to this sport. This year he has judged some of the Grasshopper qualifiers. Moray also now runs the successful BE Thornton Watlass Horse trials.

In Show Jumping, Moray has jumped at grade A level and qualified horses for the Royal International and Horse of Year shows.

Instruction Experience: Moray's ability to get the best out of his students and horses will benefit all riding combinations, whatever their level of skill. His teaching style is patient, positive and insightful, with a good measure of humor thrown in on the way. Students ranging from pleasure riders to serious competitors find him informative and constructive. His international clinics are well supported.

The clinic will be held at Stonewall Farms. Stonewall Farm is located at 17201 NE 128th St in Kearney, Missouri 64040. Private lessons are $95 (40 minutes). Semi-private lessons are available if you have a partner to ride with at $50/rider.

Please contact Beth Stoker at 785-766-4563, or email stokerbeth@hotmail.com if you are interested as soon as possible. Ride times usually fill quickly. One-week notification of cancellation requested. If you could RSVP so we can verify that the cost of his plane ticket is justified we would appreciate it.
